

Isolation and separation methods

Exam is composed of written test based on 5 questions followed by oral examination – discussion on topics from written test.